

HOW great and glorious is the place
Where we adoring stand:
Zion, the glory of the earth,
The beauty of the land!

- 2 Bulwarks of mighty grace defend
The city where we dwell,
Its wall, of strong salvation made,
Defy the powers of hell.
- 3 Lift up the everlasting gates,
The doors wide open fling;
Enter, the people who obey
The statutes of our King.
- 4 Here shall you taste unmingled joys,
And dwell in perfect peace,
For you have known Jehovah's name,
And trusted in His grace.
- 5 Trust in the Lord, for ever trust,
And banish all your fears;
Strength in the Lord Jehovah dwells,
Eternal as His years.

Isaac Watts, 1674-1748
